FLOYD WOODROW—COMPASS FOR LIFE

Floyd delivers a very interactive workshop, introducing a number of key performance principles that he has seen used in elite organisations. Floyd will describe his Compass for Life which is a unique approach that brings together the best aspects of leadership training currently available into a simple, concise, and effective framework. Floyd will enable you to understand your Super North Star (the North pointer on the compass), a clear unambiguous statement of intent that draws you forward. He will help you identify your current start point and how to be a great strategist (the South cardinal on your compass) and more importantly how to ensure your team fully understand how to support you on your journey. Floyd will outline the importance of having a strong ethos (the East cardinal on your compass) and team code of conduct. Finally he will discuss the warrior element of the compass (the West cardinal), which is your strength of character to get to each of the milestones that you have set yourself.

DAVE KEELING - INDEPENDENT THINKING

"Make 'em laugh, make 'em think – that's the way to do it."

It has to be said, 'stand-up educationalist' and self-confessed ginger, Dave Keeling is one of Independent Thinking's longest serving, most in-demand and funniest speakers.

He has quite simply honed the art of making them laugh, making them think and, in this way, making everything different to a very fine art indeed. In doing so, has transformed so many lives. And usually for the better too.

Whether it's leading a session for a hall-full of recalcitrant teenagers, a full hall of equally recalcitrant teachers or a keynote session for school leaders looking for the cure to recalcitrance in their school, Dave never fails to leave delegates happy, moved, less stressed and feeling a great deal more happy and motivated by the job in front of them.
